	1:00 pm to 4:00 pm	Program with Dr. Mehlenbeck

Program Overview: This training will explore the ethical issues related to our digital world. In particular, Dr. Mehlenbeck will discuss issues related to electronic communications (email, text), electronic medical records and social media. We will discuss HIPAA compliant platforms as well as address issues that affect HIPAA compliance. This workshop will present the issues to consider, foster thoughtful discussion and participants will leave with practical strategies to apply to their own practice.

Learning Objectives:

Participants will learn to:

1. Identify and describe ethical and legal issues around use of email and texting for professional purposes
2. Identify and describe ethical issues with electronic medical records
3. Demonstrate understanding of how electronic platforms can demonstrate HIPAA compliance
4. Set two goals designed to improve practice around electronic communication/social media

Speaker: Dr. Robyn Mehlenbeck is a Clinical Child and Adolescent board certified psychologist who specializes in working with children with medical conditions. Her specialty extends to working with families of adolescents with and without medical issues, using a family systems approach to treatment. Currently, she is a Clinical Professor at George Mason University and the Director of the GMU Center for Psychological Services, a clinic committed to training graduate students and providing services for the community. She is also a research fellow at the GMU Center for the Advancement of Well-Being. Through her practice and teaching in both medical and community mental health settings, she addresses ethical issues around electronic communication on a regular basis.

Northern Virginia Clinical Psychologist (NVCP) is a regional organization of the Virginia Academy of Clinical Psychologists whose goal is to develop a collegial support network for Northern Virginia-based clinical psychologists and those studying to be licensed. NVCP hosts at discounted cost ($55.00 for members) CE events, quarterly newsletters, message board forum, and a website (www.nv-cp.org). It is the largest regional academy of psychologists and provides many networking opportunities for its members. For more information about NVCP, please contact Laurentia Ruby at laurentia.ruby@verizon.net, or call 703-839-2523, or visit website at www.nv-cp.org. Be sure to join soon, as membership is based on a calendar year.
